

What Is a Spark Circle?

A faith-centered peer group for business owners and leaders who want more than career success.

Overview

A Spark Circle is a faith-centered peer group of 7 to 11 business owners and leaders who meet on equal footing – a circle, not a ladder – with Jet Parker as their guide. Members invest their time, resources, ideas and honest feedback in one another's success, and each receives the same in return.

The circle exists for leaders who want more than career success. Built on the Six Absolutes of The Sovereignty Imperative, it helps members protect what matters most – Faith Vitality, Health Fidelity, Relationship Integrity, Financial Liberty, Civic Accountability and Personal Authenticity – while growing their businesses and leading their organizations.

What SPARK stands for

	Practice	What members do
S	Signal	Signal when they see a member drifting off course – chasing shiny objects, or losing sight of their mission, purpose and goals.
P	Prayer	Pray for one another – for each other's progression in faith, and for enriched family time and healthy friendships that insulate the sound values that foster principled leadership.
A	Abundance	Share examples of how a circle member applied the Six Absolutes of The Sovereignty Imperative to make a better decision that protects what matters most – building a life of abundance, not just career success.
R	Rainmaking	Apply Jet's Relationship Rainmaking™ protocol to build influence, unlock opportunities, command authority, accelerate career success and produce rain – revenue.
K	Kindling	Use a case study model to generate fresh ideas that spark creative problem-solving – kindling for breakthroughs that overcome obstacles.

Why join?

- Honest counsel from peers who have no agenda. "Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established." (Proverbs 15:22, KJV)
- A circle that catches drift early. Signal keeps you aligned with your mission before a detour becomes expensive.
- Real doors opened. Rainmaking turns the circle's combined relationships and resources into career and business opportunities.
- Learning by doing. Jet's interactive exercises make the learning engaging, memorable and relevant.

The guide's role: Jet keeps time, protects the format, leads the exercises and makes sure every voice in the circle is heard. The guide serves the circle; the circle does not serve the guide.

Meeting Format

Circles meet once a month, in person. Each meeting runs about five hours, with a late-morning break, and lunch is included. Each meeting follows the SPARK acronym in order, so every session moves from alignment to faith to wisdom to opportunity to creation.

Time	Segment	What happens	Guide's role
0:00–0:15	Welcome	Members gather and settle in for the day.	Sets the tone and confirms confidentiality.
0:15–1:00	S – Signal	Each member gives a three-minute update on their mission and top goal. The circle signals anyone who appears off course or chasing shiny objects.	Keeps updates to time; invites signals; makes sure feedback stays constructive.
1:00–1:30	P – Prayer	Members share one prayer request for their business or family. The circle prays together.	Records requests so the circle can follow up at the next meeting.
1:30–2:30	A – Abundance	Two or three members share a recent decision where applying the Six Absolutes protected what matters most. The circle discusses what it reveals.	Ties each story to a specific Absolute; may assign an Absolute to reflect on before the next meeting.
2:30–2:45	Break	Late-morning break.
2:45–3:45	R – Rainmaking	Each member states one need and one offer. The circle makes introductions, shares resources and commits to specific follow-ups.	Tracks commitments; reports which past introductions produced results.
3:45–4:45	K – Kindling	One member takes the "spark seat" with a real challenge. The circle generates ideas and creative solutions, or Jet leads an interactive exercise.	Facilitates the problem-solving or runs the exercise.
4:45–5:00	Close	Each member names one action before the next meeting. The meeting ends with a closing scripture.	Shares the closing scripture; confirms the next spark seat presenter and meeting date.

Rotating roles: each meeting, one member leads the Prayer segment, one takes the spark seat and one shares a featured Abundance story. Rotating keeps everyone on equal footing.

Membership

- Each circle has 7 to 11 members and meets once a month, in person, for about five hours.
- Members must own a business, lead a business or serve in a senior leadership role in an organization.
- Every member makes a one-year commitment, with dues paid by the 5th of each month.
- Before joining, each person meets with Jet to make sure the circle is a good fit.

Six circle values

Members honor six values that keep the group honest, equal and worth everyone's time.

1. Confidentiality. What is said in the circle stays in the circle. Members share real struggles in Signal and Kindling; trust depends on discretion.
2. Attendance. Show up, on time, prepared. A circle is only as strong as the members present.
3. Candor with care. Signal honestly and receive signals graciously. "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." (Proverbs 27:17, KJV)
4. Reciprocity. Give as much as you receive – time, introductions, resources and ideas. Follow through on every Rainmaking commitment.
5. Faith. Pray for fellow members between meetings and honor the circle's faith-centered foundation.
6. Preparation. Come with an update on your mission, one prayer request, one need and one offer – and, when it's your turn, a Kindling challenge.
